FOREWORD

1. These Terms and Conditions of Service, together with Service Commission Regulations, Service Commission Policies and Procedures for Employment in the Local Government Service, Disciplinary Code and Procedures for Handling Offences in the Local Government Service, Code of Ethics and Grievance Handling Procedures in the Local Government Service, constitute Human Resources Management Policies and Procedures in the Local Government Service. In addition, my Office, the Commission and/or the Office of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Local Government, issues Administrative Circulars and Instructions from time to time to complement these policies and procedures. These provide an essential framework for the day to day operations of the Local Government Service and should be used by both supervisors and supervised employees.

2. In its determination to improve the management of the Local Government Service and in order to provide a conducive environment for an efficient and effective Local Government Service delivery system, Government has decided to review Terms and Conditions of Service.

3. The revised Terms and Conditions of Service have been aligned to the existing Labour Legislations and trends in the labour market. Users of these Terms and Conditions of Service should, when applying them, always refer to other documents mentioned in paragraph 1 above.

4. It is my sincere hope that these Terms and Conditions of Service will enable Local Government Service employees to carry out their duties diligently. It is, therefore, important for all Local Government Service employees to familiarise themselves with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions of Service which outline their rights and obligations. Unless these are understood and followed by all Local Government Service employees, it will be difficult to eliminate delays in processing cases and poor decision making, which result in mal-administration.

5. I urge Responsible Officers in the Local Authorities to include induction and orientation programmes in their annual work plans on the Terms and Conditions of Service, so that there is continuous awareness and compliance among employees in the Local Authorities.

SIMON K. MITI (DR)
SECRETARY TO THE CABINET
CABINET OFFICE

CHAPTER IV

CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

Officer to comply with Disciplinary Code and lawful orders and instructions	52. Officers are required to comply with these Terms and Conditions of Service for the Local Government Service and any verbal or written lawful orders and instructions of the Responsible Officer or of any senior officer which relates to their work. The Local Government Service Commission Disciplinary Code and Procedures for Handling Offences which has been issued in addition to the foregoing, apply to all officers.
Standard of conduct and efficiency	53. The Local Government Service must be beyond reproach. It is, therefore, the duty of every officer to maintain the highest standard of conduct, efficiency and personal behaviour. Any departure from these standards shall constitute misconduct.
Dress and wearing of uniform	54. (a) Except where prevented by the nature of work while on duty, all officers shall dress in a clean, decent and tidy manner in order to reflect credit to the Local Government Service. (b) No uniform may be introduced for any category of officers until the design has been submitted and approved by the Permanent Secretary, Local Government. Officers who are required to wear uniform will wear it at all times when on duty. Failure to comply with this requirement shall constitute misconduct.
New Uniform to be approved
Dealing with the Public	55. It is the duty of all officers to be courteous, helpful and attentive in all their dealings with the general public. Any departure from this standard shall constitute misconduct and provocation by a member of the public shall not be an excuse for any misconduct in this regard.
Officers liable to serve anywhere	56. Officers are liable to serve at any station where their services are required. Failure to comply with any instructions regarding postings or transfers without reasonable grounds, shall constitute misconduct.
Officers to be present on duty when required	57. (a) Officers shall be present on duty during the whole period of the normal working hours and may also be required to work outside these hours when necessary whether or not they occupy posts qualifying for over-time. Failure to comply shall constitute misconduct. (b) No officer shall engage in the trade or sale of any kind of merchandise in a Local Authority Office or any other Local Authority premises. Failure to comply shall constitute misconduct.
Trade or sale of merchandise in Local Authority offices

- 58. (a) Normal working hours for the Local Government Service shall be as laid down by the Secretary to the Cabinet from time to time. - (b) All female officers are entitled to a day off every month. This, however shall not be cumulative. Mother's day
- 59. (a) An officer who is absent from duty without leave to do so for a continuous period of ten (10) or more working days, shall be liable for dismissal. Absence from duty without leave
- (b) An officer shall not be paid a salary for the period he or she is absent from duty without leave unless he or she produces satisfactory evidence justifying such absence. Salary not to be paid for absence
- (c) Supervising Officers, shall report all cases of absence without leave to their Responsible Officers for appropriate action. Failure on the part of a Supervising Officer to report any case of absence from duty without leave shall constitute misconduct. Supervisors to report absence
- (d) (i) Before submitting a recommendation that an officer who is absent without leave for a continuous period of ten (10) or more working days should be dismissed, the Responsible Officer concerned shall first inform the officer of the action he or she proposes to take, by communicating to an officer via his or her last known physical or any electronic address. The communication shall give the officer up to five (5) working days in which to submit representations why he or she should not be dismissed and no further action may be taken until this period of time has elapsed. Action by Responsible Officer before recommending dismissal
- (ii) Where an Officer who is facing disciplinary action reports for work, the responsible officer may suspend the officer pending the decision of the Commission or Responsible Officer. Further the period that the officer was away should be regarded as unpaid leave. Suspension pending decision
- 60. (a)(i) An officer who is absent from duty on account of ill-health shall report to the Supervising Officer and submit a medical certificate from a registered medical doctor or dental surgeon; Absence from duty owing to ill health
- (ii) An officer who is absent from duty on account of ill-health and fails to report, shall not be eligible for sick leave and shall be regarded as being absent without leave and dealt with accordingly; and

Reporting for duty under influence of alcohol or drugs

(iii) Where an officer who is absent from duty on account of ill-health caused by his or her own negligence or misconduct, the Commission, or the Responsible Officer, shall direct that all or part of the officer's salary should not be paid for the period of time the officer is absent from duty.

(b) Officers must not report for duty under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Where the Supervising Officer is of the opinion that an officer on duty may be under the influence of alcohol or drugs, the following procedure shall apply.

(i) The Supervising Officer shall where possible ensure that the officer's intoxication is verified or confirmed by valid medical or clinical tests. Valid medical or clinical tests shall be those tests which are usually used for such purposes and any others that may prove that the officer is under the influence of alcohol or drugs; and

(ii) Refusal by an officer to take a test shall constitute misconduct.

(c) If an officer is found guilty of being under the influence of alcohol or drugs while on duty, the Supervising Officer shall report the matter to the Head of Department who shall immediately take disciplinary action against the officer concerned in accordance with the laid down procedures in the Disciplinary Code.

State
Security Act
Cap 111

61. (a) Officers shall undertake in writing on Form CSB 10 to comply with all the provisions of the State Security Act and shall acknowledge that they are aware of the serious consequences which may follow any breach of those provisions. The unauthorised disclosure by an officer of any information which has been obtained as a result of his or her position in the Local Government Service may be in breach of the State Security Act, CAP 111 of the Laws of Zambia.

Act applies after leaving the service

(b) The provisions of the State Security Act shall continue to apply after an officer leaves the Local Government Service in respect of any information obtained while he or she was a Public Servant.

62. No officer, whether on duty or on leave, shall grant interviews or discuss matters affecting the defence or security of Zambia. Doing so shall constitute misconduct.	Officers not to discuss matters of defence or security
63. No officer may offer hospitality to or accept hospitality from any foreign diplomatic representative without the prior permission of his or her Responsible Officer. An officer shall not accept any foreign order or decoration without the prior consent of the Government of the Republic of Zambia. Doing so shall constitute misconduct.	Relations with foreign diplomats
64. (a) Subject to the provision in 65 above, no officer is permitted to be an editor of a newspaper, magazine or any other non-Governmental publication or to directly or indirectly take part in its management without the prior permission of the Responsible Officer.	Officers not to edit or manage publications
(b) An officer shall not write on subjects which may be interpreted as political or relating to the organisation and administration of the Local Government Service.	Officers not to write on political or administrative matters
(c) An officer may publish signed articles dealing with matters of general interest with the express permission of a Responsible Officer.	Publications by officers
65. Notwithstanding the provision in 66, an officer is free to use his or her leisure time in pursuit of works for which his or her official experience and knowledge may qualify him or her. Publications of a technical, professional or scientific nature may be published by officers with permission of the Responsible Officer.	Publications with consent of the Responsible Officer

- (iv) carry any unauthorised goods or loads;
- (v) drive under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- (vi) commence a journey until the appropriate entry has been made in the vehicle logbook.

71. A Responsible Officer shall appoint a senior officer to be responsible for all official transport at each station. It is the duty of this officer to ensure that any person driving a Local Authority vehicle for which he or she is responsible is fully aware of the requirements to drive a Local Authority vehicle.

Failure to comply shall constitute misconduct.

72. Whenever a Local Authority vehicle is involved in an accident, the officer driving, or if for any reason the officer is unable to do so, any other officer aware of the circumstances, shall immediately report the accident to the officer responsible for transport at the driver's station who shall immediately inform the Secretary to the Standing Accidents Board or the Secretary to the Provincial Accidents Committee by the quickest means available, giving the following particulars:

Duties of officers responsible for transport

- (a) the date and time of the accident;
- (b) the exact place of the accident;
- (c) any injuries to the driver or passengers of the Local Authority vehicle;
- (d) the registration number of the Local Authority vehicle and the Department to which the vehicle is assigned; and
- (e) any injuries to the driver and passengers of any other vehicle involved.

Accident reporting procedure

Within forty-eight (48) hours, a Preliminary Accident Report shall be submitted to the Board by the officer responsible for transport.

73. Any correspondence concerning an accident involving a Local Authority vehicle which is received by the Responsible Officer from third parties or from their legal representatives shall be acknowledged but referred to the Secretary of the Standing Accidents Board. In no circumstances should it be admitted when acknowledging, that the person who was driving at the time was responsible for the accident or that the Local Authority is in any way liable.

No admission of liability for accident

Care and economy in use of vehicles

74. It is the duty of all officers required to use official transport to exercise the utmost care and economy in the use of Local Authority vehicles. Failure to do so shall constitute misconduct.

Defence of officers at Public expense

75. (a) Whenever criminal or civil proceedings are instituted against an officer which arise out of his or her official position or are a result of an act or omission by him or her in the course of official duties, he or she may apply, in writing through the Responsible Officer to the Attorney-General's Chambers for assistance in his or her defence, giving full details of the issues involved. Defence of officers at public expense

(b) The Attorney-General's Chambers may arrange for the officer's defence if it is established that the officer acted in good faith in the execution of his or her official duties and that it is in the public interest that he or she be defended at the Local Authority expense.

Bankruptcy

76. An officer against whom proceedings in bankruptcy are being instituted shall immediately report the facts to his or her Responsible Officer who shall refer the matter to the Commission for determination.

Procedure when officer is Charged with serious offence

77. (a) Where an officer is charged with a serious offence, the arresting Law Enforcement Agency, shall report to the Responsible Officer. Procedure when officer is charged with serious offence

(b) Upon the conclusion of the case, the Responsible Officer shall obtain two certified copies of the charge and judgement and institute the necessary disciplinary action and refer the matter to the Committee or the Commission for determination.

(c) In the event of an appeal being lodged following conviction, the Employee shall notify the Responsible Officer of the appeal and thereafter of the results of the appeal.

Offences to be reported

78. It shall be the duty of every Supervising Officer to report immediately to his or her Responsible Officer or Head of Department whenever he or she has reason to believe that an officer under his or her supervision has committed an offence likely to warrant disciplinary action. Failure on the part of the Supervising Officer to report an offence likely to warrant disciplinary action shall constitute misconduct.

Criminal offences to be reported to Law Enforcement Agencies

79. Where the Responsible Officer is satisfied that an offence committed by an officer under his or her charge may lead to criminal proceedings, he or she shall report the matter to the Law Enforcement Agencies immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the matter shall where possible be first handled administratively before instituting criminal proceedings.

80. An officer who is dismissed or discharged as a result of his or her conviction for a criminal offence and who is subsequently acquitted on appeal shall be reinstated immediately and paid:

Officers acquitted on appeal

- (a) the full salary from the date of his or her dismissal or discharge; and
- (b) the amount withheld from his or her salary during the period of suspension.

81. Where it is necessary to issue a formal warning to an officer that his or her work or conduct is unsatisfactory, the warning shall be as follows:

Formal warning

- (a) Verbal warning;
- (b) Written warning;
- (c) Severe warning;
- (d) Final warning.

82. (a) A surcharge for loss of public money or stores may, under the provision of the Public Financial Management Act No. 1 of 2018 be levied against the salary and or pension of an officer if through wilful default or gross neglect of duty he or she:

CHAPTER VI

ORDINARY LEAVE

LEAVE AND TRAVELLING ON LEAVE

- 92. (a) Leave shall be granted subject to the needs of the Local Government Service. Application for Leave
- (b) Responsible Officers, Heads of Department or Supervising Officers must ensure that employees serving under them take leave regularly to avoid accrual of excess leave days. Leave may be granted any time after an employee has completed six (6) months service. Leave
- 93. Officers, other than those serving on agreement specifying entitlement to higher leave earning rate or those employed on a part-time basis, will earn leave for each month of qualifying service as follows: Leave earning rates
- | | |
|--------------------------|---------|
| Officers in Division I | 3½ days |
| Officers in Division II | 3 days |
| Officers in Division III | 2½ days |
- 94. For the purpose of calculating the amount of leave earned, qualifying service will begin on the date an officer first reports for duty on first appointment or returns from leave and will end on the day before he or she proceeds on leave or on the date of his or her resignation, retirement or termination of employment. Any period of absence from duty due to illness or injury during which the officer does not receive a salary will not count as qualifying service. Qualifying service for calculating earned leave
- 95. (a) The amount of leave due to an officer shall be calculated according to the number of months he or she has completed during his or her period of qualifying service. Any extra days shall be carried forward and added to his or her period of qualifying service. Thirty (30) days will make up one month. Calculation of leave amounts
- (b) Any approved leave other than maternity leave, study leave and sick leave, will be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Public Holidays. Approved leave to exclude Saturdays, Sundays and Public Holidays
- 96. When an officer's leave rate changes during a period of qualifying service, the leave due to him or her for each part of that period of service shall be calculated separately. Changes in leave rates

Calculation of leave at a higher rate	97. When an officer's leave rate changes during a period of qualifying service, the leave due to him or her for each part of that period of service shall be calculated at the higher rate.
Any fraction of day's leave	98. Any fraction of a day's leave shall be carried forward and added to subsequent leave.
Officers to take leave regularly	99. A Responsible Officer shall ensure that employees serving under him or her take leave regularly to avoid accumulating excess leave days and to enable the employee to rest.
Maximum continuous period of leave	100. (a) No officer may be granted leave for a continuous period longer than is specified below: <table> <tr> <td>For officers in Division I</td><td>120 days;</td></tr> <tr> <td>For officers in Division II</td><td>110 days; and</td></tr> <tr> <td>For officers in Division III</td><td>100 days.</td></tr> </table>	For officers in Division I	120 days;	For officers in Division II	110 days; and	For officers in Division III	100 days.
For officers in Division I	120 days;
For officers in Division II	110 days; and
For officers in Division III	100 days.
Balance of earned leave being carried over	(b) If an officer is granted only part of the total leave which he or she has earned, he or she may be granted the balance later together with any further leave which he or she may then have earned. Balance of earned leave being carried over
Maximum continuous period of leave	101. (a) Local Government Service officers may accumulate leave up to the prescribed maximum limits specified under as follows: <table> <tr> <td>Officers in Division I</td><td>230 days</td></tr> <tr> <td>Officers in Division II</td><td>205 days</td></tr> <tr> <td>Officers in Division III</td><td>160 days</td></tr> </table>	Officers in Division I	230 days	Officers in Division II	205 days	Officers in Division III	160 days
Officers in Division I	230 days
Officers in Division II	205 days
Officers in Division III	160 days
	An officer who accumulates leave in excess of the prescribed limit shall forfeit his or her excess number of days to the Local Authority.
Refusal to grant leave being carried over	(b) If an officer applies for leave and his or her application is not approved because of the needs of the service, he or she may nevertheless be permitted to postpone the leave to a later date and shall be allowed to accrue excess leave days. However, such postponement must be notified in writing to the employee by the Head of Department. (c) Failure to provide documentary evidence of postponement or non approval of leave as indicated in 101 (a) above shall lead to the officer forfeiting the excess leave days. Refusal to grant leave being carried over.

COMMUTATION OF LEAVE DAYS FOR CASH

103. A Responsible Officer may authorize an officer to commute up to one hundred and twenty (120) days of his or her leave for cash subject to the availability of funds.

Commutation of leave for cash

104. When an officer commutes leave for cash, the commutation payment shall be calculated at the full rate of his or her substantive basic salary.

Calculation of commutation payment

105. When an officer proceeds on terminal leave, he or she must be paid in advance for all leave due to him or her. The payment shall be calculated at the full rate of his or her substantive basic salary. Excess leave days shall only be paid where there is authority from the Controlling Officer.

Payment of terminal leave

106. A payment shall be made to the appointed administrator of the estate of an officer who dies in the service and will be calculated at the full rate of his or her substantive basic salary.

Payment on death of officer

107. An officer who leaves the service without giving the required notice, or paying salary in lieu thereof shall not be paid terminal leave in advance until the matter has been referred to the Responsible Officer.

Terminal benefits to be withheld

LOCAL LEAVE

108. An officer must take local leave of not more than twenty-nine (29) days once every year.

VACATION LEAVE

109. (a) An officer shall be required to proceed on thirty (30) days or more paid leave every year.

(b) An officer proceeding on paid leave for thirty (30) days or more shall be entitled to vacation leave allowance to enable him or her and the family to travel from his or her station to the leave destination within Zambia.

(c) Vacation Leave allowance shall be granted at intervals of twenty-four (24) months.

(d) An officer shall submit an application for vacation leave at least one month before the intended date of leave.

(e) An officer shall not proceed on leave without prior approval.

CONVALESCENCE LEAVE

110. An officer who has been absent from duty due to illness or injury, not caused by his or her own negligence or misconduct, may, before returning to duty and if considered necessary by the Purpose of convalescence leave competent medical authorities, be granted time to recover fully from the effects of his or her illness or injury. Convalescence Leave shall not be deducted from an officer's earned leave.

Recommendation for convalescence leave

111. (a) When a medical officer considers a period of convalescence necessary, he or she shall submit a recommendation to that effect to the Responsible Officer of the officer's Local Authority.

Convalescence leave for more than twenty-one-days

(b) Convalescence leave for a period of more than twenty-one (21) days shall be granted on recommendation of a registered medical doctor or dental surgeon.

URGENT LEAVE FOR PERSONAL REASONS

Leave for urgent personal reasons

112. An officer who has no leave days due to him or her and who wishes to be absent from duty for urgent personal reasons may apply to the Responsible Officer for leave.

Unpaid leave for one year

113. (a) A Responsible Officer may grant unpaid leave of up to one year to an officer for personal reasons. An officer who has been granted unpaid leave shall continue to pay both employer and employee's share of pension contributions so that the period of qualifying service for purposes of computing pension benefits is continuous.

(b) Notwithstanding (a) above, the resumption of duty of an employee who proceeded on unpaid leave shall not be guaranteed but dependent on the availability of an approved, funded and vacant position on the payroll.

Deduction or refunds in respect of leave for urgent personal reasons

114. When an officer who has no accrued leave days is granted paid leave for urgent personal reasons, this must be deducted from the leave for which he or she qualifies after his or her return to duty. If he or she leaves the service before qualifying for leave equivalent to the leave which he or she has taken for urgent personal reasons, the officer must return to the Local Authority his or her salary for each day by which his or her earned leave entitlement falls short of the paid leave taken. The salary to be refunded shall be based on his or her salary at the time the leave was taken.

SPECIAL LEAVE

Grant of special leave

115. (a) A Responsible Officer may grant an officer special leave on full salary in the following circumstances:

To sit for examination

(i) when an officer has to sit for a private examination which is directly connected with the officer's career in the Local Government Service; the approval of
